Rudrapur, 13 Aug: Prashant Advait Foundation set up a book stall in the main market, here, while singing Kabir bhajans.

The foundation's team made people aware about translations of the Bhagavadgita, Upanishad, Vedanta written by Acharya Prashant in simple and precise language. Also, the youth were informed that, if one wants to live a simple and systematic life, one has to come to spirituality, because Bhagavadgita solves all the problems of life.

The team gave information about the books written by Acharya Prashant – Sambandh, Karmafal, Bhagavadgita, Karmayog, Karma, Man, Sangharsh Apne Viruddh, Darr, in the main market of Rudrapur, under the leadership of Mohan Singh Fauji. Team members Seema Futela, Usha Pathak, Mukul, Prakash Dutta, Kartikeya, Pradeep Futela shared information with the youth about the activities of the organisation. They said that in the present time, when every person is living under stress, natural disasters are occurring on the earth due to non-vegetarianism, climate change is being seen, in such a time only spirituality can solve all these problems. Acharya Prashant is running a campaign to reach this work to the general public. An online examination on the Gita was organised by the organisation in which 30 thousand people joined. More than 50 million people have joined his spiritual YouTube channel.
